Medieval Studies
Strategic Plan

The Medieval Studies Steering Committee will develop a Strategic Plan during the course of the 2011-2012 academic year as part of a year-long initiative to re-conceive the program as Medieval and Renaissance Studies, a process begun in the previous year. By the end of 2011-2012, the Steering Committee will have redesigned the curriculum for the minor and drafted a five-year strategic plan to help guide the new program through 2017.
