OBJECTIVES: To investigate and discover the mutual interaction between religious beliefs and gender roles: how religion shapes and justifies gender roles, and changing gender roles shape religion. Special topics for investigation include: the origins of patriarchy, women’s religious and social lives in patriarchal cultures, women shamans and other roles of religious leadership for women, the changing roles of women in cultures and religions, the role of feminism in effecting changes in religions and cultures, and women creating women-friendly religions.

TERM PAPERS ARE DUE ON THIS DATE. 10 PTS. WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM THE FINAL GRADES OF PAPERS THAT ARE TURNED IN LATE. TO BE COUNTED ON TIME, THE STUDENT SHOULD TURN IN ONE HARD COPY AND UPLOAD THE FILE TO THE DIGITAL DROP-BOX.

Final Exam: Thursday, May 7, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

There will be two exams (Mid-Term and Final) counting 75 pts. each, constituting one-half of the final grade. The remaining one-half of the final grade will consist of a term paper (40 pts); ten true-false quizzes (counting 5 pts. each, for a total of 50 pts.), class attendance and discussion (30 pts.), and participation on the discussion board (30 pts.). The final grade will be based on 300 possible pts.

GRADING SCALE: A - 92%; B - 83%; C - 71%; D- 65%.

Exams

Each exam will consist of one discussion question counting 25 pts. and ten identifications counting five points each. Therefore, each exam counts a total of 75 pts.

There will be no make-up exams, except in the case of severe illness or a family emergency, in which case the instructor should be notified at once.
Quizzes

The quizzes will consist of 10 true-false statements counting 1/2 pt. each, so that each quiz is worth 5 pts. Ten quizzes are worth 50 pts. A total of 11 quizzes will be given during the semester.

There will be no make-up quizzes. A total of 11 true-false quizzes will be given during the semester. At the end of the semester, the lowest true-false quiz score will be dropped. If you miss a class during which a true-false quiz was administered, that missed quiz will be dropped at the end of the semester. If you miss more than one true-false quiz, your grade will be diminished accordingly.

For your convenience, the approximate dates for the quizzes are given on the syllabus. However, if these dates are changed by the instructor, you are responsible for being prepared to take the quiz, even if you missed the previous class in which the quiz date was announced.

Class Discussion

Women in Religions and Cultures is a seminar for advanced undergraduate credit. Therefore, class attendance and participation in discussion is crucial. This is not a lecture-format course. Class participation and discussion will be graded on a scale of 30 pts. (15 pts. first half of semester; 15 pts. second half of semester). In order to participate in class discussion, it is crucial that the reading assignments be completed prior to attending class. Regular attendance is part of the discussion grade.

Term Paper

The term paper, counting 40 pts., will consist of 8-10 pages typewritten and double-spaced on a topic selected by the student that has been approved by the instructor.

The term paper topic must be approved by January 29 by the instructor. 5 pts. will be deducted from the grade of the term paper if the topic is not approved by this date.

February 19 is the deadline for turning in the bibliography and outline for the term paper. If the bibliography and outline are turned in late, 5 pts. will be deducted from the grade of the term paper.

A rough draft of the term paper is due on March 26. 5 pts. will be deducted from the final grade of the term paper if the rough draft is turned in late. The rough draft will not be graded. The instructor will read the rough draft, provide comments on how it can be improved, and then return the paper to the student.

Term papers are due April 28. 5 points will be deducted from the grade of late term papers. Turn in one hard copy of the term paper, and upload the electronic file to the digital drop box in Blackboard to be counted on time.

It is strongly recommended that you take your term paper to the Writing Across the Curriculum Lab in Bobet, and have one of the tutors read it and make suggestions for its improvement. See the Term Paper Check List for the criteria for a good term paper.

The term paper should contain no typographical errors or misspelled words. The grade of the term paper will be adversely affected if these are present.

Plagiarism

The student should note Loyola’s policy on plagiarism in the Undergraduate Bulletin. A student who is found to have committed plagiarism in a term paper may be given a failing grade for that course. A second instance of plagiarism is grounds for dismissal from the university.
The Undergraduate Bulletin defines plagiarism as “the false assumption of authorship: the wrongful act of taking the product of another person’s mind, and presenting it as one’s own.” “Plagiarism may take the form of repeating another’s sentences as your own, adopting a particularly apt phrase as your own, paraphrasing someone else’s argument as your own, or even presenting someone else’s line of thinking in the development of a thesis as though it were your own.”

Students should not copy sentences from a book directly into their term papers. The only exception is when such sentences are properly identified as quotations and the proper references are given. Direct quotations and extended block quotations should be a minimal part of your term paper. In writing the term paper for this or any other Loyola course, plagiarism should be carefully avoided.

Gender Inclusive Language

It is important that the student remember to use gender inclusive language when writing her or his term paper. The student should make the effort to use terms such as humans, human beings, persons, etc., in place of the generic “man.” The grade of the term paper will be adversely affected by the use of sexist language.

Discussion Board

30 pts. may be earned by participating regularly on the course discussion-board. The instructor will post questions there for consideration and make announcements on the discussion-board. Students should feel free to post their own questions, observations, and news items on the discussion-board. To participate fully on the discussion-board, students should log in and leave a thoughtful message twice a week. The instructor will read the postings and note which ones indicate that the student is thinking deeply about the topics being studied in the class.

Policy on Laptops in the Classroom

It has become evident that with the introduction of wireless access to the Internet, laptops have been used as distractions in the classroom. If the instructor becomes aware that the student is using the laptop to surf the Web or check email, the student will lose the privilege of using the laptop in the classroom for the rest of the semester. Laptops must be closed when movies are shown.

Policy on Cell Phones and Text-Messaging

The student should make every effort to turn off his or her cell phone before entering the classroom. Any student observed text-messaging in class will be counted absent for that class period.

Disability Services

A student with a disability that qualifies for accommodations should contact Sarah Mead Smith, Director of Disability Services at 865-2990 (Academic Resource Center, Room 405, Monroe Hall). A student wishing to receive text accommodations (e.g., extended test time) should provide the instructor with an official Accommodation Form from Disability Servicves in advance of the scheduled test date.
